Hi Rob,

I hope today goes well for you!

Sending this along for when you are back - I will be starting vacation on Saturday and will not be back for 2 weeks, so I am asking, please - can you see this process through to completion?

The Chiefs have approved the purchase of the replenishment stock of LLIMS that is referenced in the email below. The quote that is attached is for new equipment and the Chiefs would like me to try and use EQShare for it, since I don't think we have any room for this outside of QCPF or EQ and they asked for EQ to be used if needed. I will work with Nancy on this part, if you can proceed with placing order for what is noted below (the replacement LLIMS) for delivery asap.

Thank you,
Shannon

Subject: LLIMS Request

DC Young,

Attached is the Pepperball quote and below are the items we are looking to order to restock our LLIMS supply:

DC Tri chambers	$1367.30
OC Vapor	$745.20
Inert Tri-Chamber	$558.50
40 mm exact impact	$367.95
40 mm exact impact extended range	$328.50
40 mm direct impact OC	$348.75
12 gauge drag stabilizers	$563.50

$4,279.70 - Munitions 1 V.S.A. 317(c)(5)(v), (c)(5)(iv), (c)(25)
 $6,662 - Pepperball

$10, 941.70 - Total

I would expect there to be a freight charge and tax for the munitions, so this will likely be slightly higher. I can ask Jim Berry from Defense Tech to forward us a full quote if this is approved. If not, Sgt. Byrne and I can look at downsizing munitions and keeping the Pepperball purchase.

Please let us know if you have any questions.

Respectfully,

Jake
