Dear Ms. Brown:

Thank you for your call. As we discussed, you have asked VSP to provide certain additional information in order to fully resolve your claim: (1) a certification regarding body armor compliance with NIJ performance standards and (2) clarification regarding the redacted information on the invoices. I am reasonably confident we will be able to provide satisfactory additional information and that you will therefore be able to dismiss the superior court claim. I can provide a template for that motion. However, as we are heading into Labor Day weekend I do not think I can get you a response from VSP before next Tuesday, which is the deadline for me to respond to the complaint. I think it makes sense for me to file another request to postpone the deadline to file an answer for an additional ten days. Please let me know if you consent to this extension and I will note that in the motion.

I consent to a postponement.

Send me the template for dismissal so i can look it over.

Best regards,

Much thanks
